On March 22, 1951, eighteen anti-aircraft guns, 126 mm., Skoda 1938 model, arrived in Maribor from Sisak in the sealed boxcars of a military train. The guns had been repaired at Sisak where new parts had been substituted for old and, painted green, the guns have a brand new appearance. Lt. Colonel Galic Gorazd (nicknamed "Bik" - the Bull), Commandant of the Maribor Military Depot, received the guns which are allegedly destined for the Artillery Regiment in Maribor.
